Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Hello,

I found the settlement being agreed upon between Microsoft Corporation and the Department of Justice to be an insult to American consumers, Microsoft's corporate victims and to the Justice Department itself. The terms of the agreement do very little to prevent Microsoft's anti-competitive behavior and do nothing at all to lessen Microsoft's monopoly power.

Still worse, you've set a terrible president. Your actions have spoken clearly that corporations can be found guilty of monopoly power and strong arm tactics and will receive no remedial actions. The eyes of the world are watching.

Sincerely,

James Herrmann
